

The University of Johannesburg's
SARChI Chair for African Diplomacy and Foreign Policy, In Partnership with Jacana Media and Mutloatse Arts
Heritage Trust, Invite You to a Book
Launch On:

“Letters to my Comrades”
Interventions & Excursions
~ Z PALLO JORDAN ~

- DATE: Thursday, 28 September 2017
TIME: 17h30 for 18h00
VENUE: School of Tourism and Hospitality (STH),
Bunting Road Campus, Auckland Park
RSVP: Nabila Noor Mahomed
nabilanm@uj.ac.za / 011 599 2716

The Ultimate Collection of Writings Amassed
Over Nearly Half a Century of Struggle

Z Pallo Jordan has long been the unapologetic moral guardian of the liberation struggle. His writings spanning decades are testament to the power of putting pen to paper and speaking the truth with forceful and eminently readable moral conviction.

Letters to my Comrades is the ultimate collection of his piercing and yet embraceable thoughts and inquiries.

“In many ways this book is strikingly apt for the current historical period. For one thing, it is being published at a time when the current phase of the historical process is astride two separate but conceptually inter-linking periods ... the apartheid and the post-apartheid stages.”

– Former president Kgalema Motlanthe

This treasure trove of the writings of Jordan could not have been more timely in this critical – or should we say unfortunate – period of the promise that was the New Democratic Republic of South Africa, and published as it is on the eve of the African National Congress’s general elective congress in December 2017, and interestingly in the aftermath of the watershed municipal elections of 3 August 2016.

SARChI

DISCLAIMER: All events taking place in this venue may be photographed and video recorded for marketing, social media and media purposes. By attending this event, you grant the University of Johannesburg permission to use and publish any recorded material